Defense Secretary Gilbert Teodoro speaks before students and faculty members of Maasim Elementary School after the defense chief's inspection visit of the ongoing repair and rehabilitation of buildings in said school in Saranggani province. This project is part of the P20-million emergency work program of the Department of National Defense undertaken in compliance with PGMA's directive to Cabinet members to provide pro-poor projects in the rural areas as a way to uplift the lives in the communities. Secretary Teodor also visited the ongoing repair of school-building in Colon Elementary School in the same province.
