Statement of the Secretary of National Defense

The DND welcomes the approval by the House Committees on Public Order and Safety, and National Defense and Security of a proposed bill which will strengthen the government's response against terrorism. The Human Security Act of 2007 is no longer responsive to the evolving nature of the threats we face, hence the need for a new law.

Delfin N. Lorenzana
Secretary of National Defense

#####